

Two veteran St. Augustine teachers receive Master's degrees

Veteran St. Augustine School teachers Mrs. Linda Collins (Pre-K/K) and Mrs. Cheryl Hanton (5th Grade) both recently received Master of Arts in Teaching degrees from Grand Canyon University.

Based in Phoenix, Grand Canyon University offers degrees for online studies. Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Hanton received their Master's degrees following 18 months of studies.

More than two-thirds of St. Augustine School teachers and administrators hold at least one graduate degree.
