St. Augustine School Parents & Friends,

United Soccer Club, an activity of DC United (local professional soccer team, www.dcunited.com) that is funded by the U.S. Soccer Federation, is expanding their free afterschool soccer programs in this city after initially focusing on Ward 8.

They run two 8-week soccer programs (Spring/Fall) that meet twice weekly for 1st-4th grade students. They are considering holding one at Harrison Recreation (1330 V Street, N.W.). As I learn the details of their plans, I will be sure to pass them along.

We are also seeking volunteers to coach Spring CYO sports (soccer for 1st-2nd graders; track and field; baseball/softball), and if you are interested, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Bill Murray
